Registration on Shaastra website and getting a Shaastra ID

If you are new to the Shaastra website, please register on the website. You just need to give basic information. After registering, you will get a Shaastra-ID which will be your ID for the entire Shaastra. You can use this same Shaastra ID to login again when you revisit the website.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `shaastra.org/2015/main/php/pages/login.php`. The page has a dark background with a grid pattern. At the top, it says "LOGIN" with a dice icon. Below that, it says "Join us with one click" and features a "Login using Facebook" button with the Facebook logo. Underneath, it says "OR, Login using your Shaastra account" and has "Login" and "Register" buttons. The login form includes fields for "Name" (First name and Last name), "Email address" (with a placeholder "Enter a valid email id"), and "Password" (with a placeholder "Password - Atleast 6 characters").

Updating Information on the Dashboard

After registration, you can go to the dashboard. You will have to update your profile once after the registration.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `shaastra.org/2015/main/php/pages/dashboard.php#edit-profile`. The page has a dark background with a grid pattern. At the top, the word "DASHBOARD" is displayed in large white letters, with a small dice icon below it. A pink notification box at the top center contains the text: "Wait Up ! We need some basic information about yourself before proceeding. Please fill in the profile information and submit it." Below this, there are three tabs: "Profile", "Teams", and "Events". The "Profile" tab is active, showing a "Profile Details" section. This section includes a "View Profile" button on the left and a "Logout" button on the right. The profile details are as follows:

Shaastra ID	SH1501445
Name	Harshit	Gupta

Downloading the TDP

After getting a valid Shaastra, you can register for any event or workshop.

To register for any event, visit the respective event's page. You can download TDP from the Registration Tab of that event.

<http://shaastra.org/2015/main/php/pages/event.php?category=Design+and+Build&event=Contraptions>

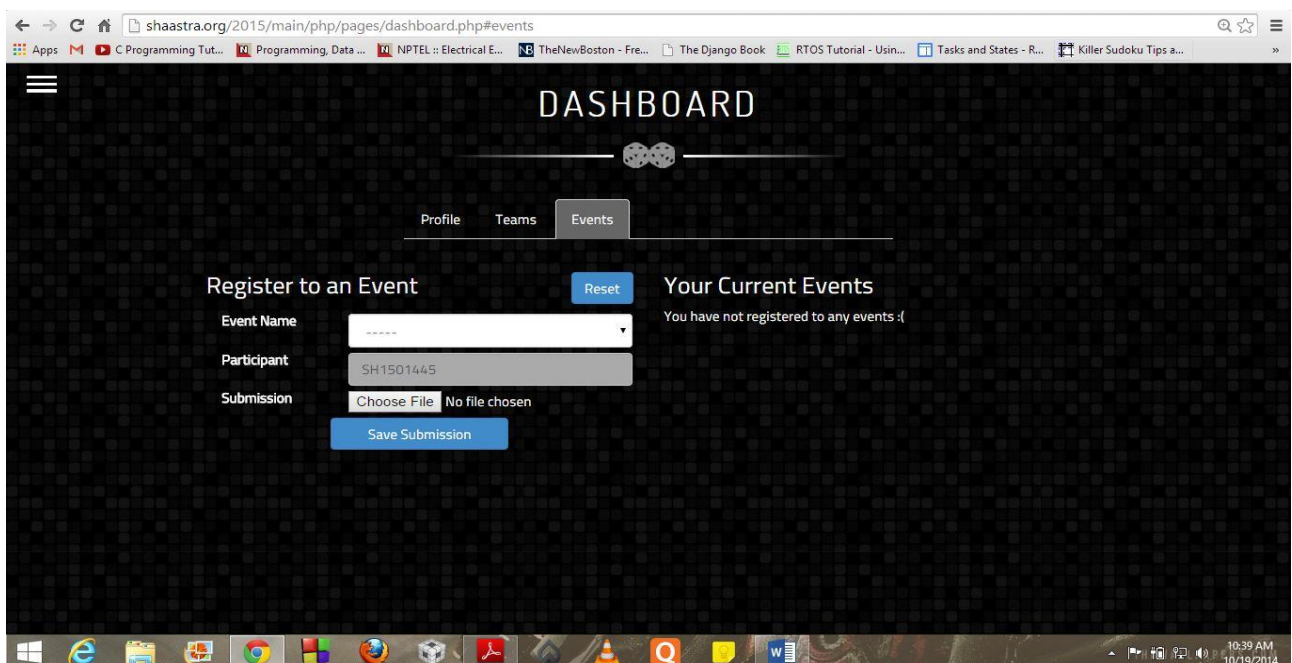

After downloading the TDP, fill the information as required and save the file on your computer.

Uploading the TDP

You can directly upload this file on the dashboard under events tab after selecting the respective event.
